H. Ceriston, of Fairview, who is it the city, tells an interesting story of the opening up of a rich mining distric in the mountains six miles west of Eph raim, in a locality that has been tray ersed hundreds of times by prospector and mining men.

Eighteen years ago Mr. Ceristor was satisfied that this country was heavily nineralized, and so much was he impressed with this idea that he to be nothing but iron and sindstone, and that the country was no good. Not long ago Mr. Ceristion determined to revisit this region once again, and taking two men with him began prospecting on the mountain side. At one place a large suider attracted his attention, and he directed one of his men to break it with his sledge hammer. This was done, and when the muscle and steel spattered the rock it was found that it was solid steel galena, running from 75 to 85 per cent lead and a few ounces in silver to the ton. Following up the float, waich was plentiful, they finally found the ledge, which ran through the identical claim which ran through the identical claim that Mr. Ceriston had located eight-

Following a small seam at the sur-face a shaft was soon under way, and at the depth of a few feet as fine a four-foot body of steel galena ore was uncovered as any man could wish to see, and when Mr. Ceriston left for Incorporated with a Capital of Half this city on Tuesday, more than a carload of this mineral had been extracted and it is reasonable to suppose that by this time another shipment or two has been placed on the dump, as the work in the development of the property is being visorously pushed.

In speaking of the large boulders of In speaking of the large boulders of mineral, which, in ages gone by, had evidently broken from the ledge and rolled down the hill, Mr. Cerlefon states that on one of his claims there is a boulder of this steel galenn ore that must weigh at least twenty or thirty tons, and it is his intention to put a shot into it at an early day and ship it to the smelters.

LIFE INSURANCE.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The question of mutual life insurance within the jurisdiction of Utah which has been agitated quietly for a year bore fruit at this session of the Grand lodge. G. P. M. Wardleigh, of Ogden, and P. G. S. Jennens, of Sait Lake, brought the matter to the notice of the grand lodge which action resulted in the appointment of a special committee to report next year. The committee is composed of H. C. We have gathered here today in annual convention for the purpose of learning the condition of the order of Odd Fellowship in this jurisdiction, to enact laws as may be necessary and desirable, to forward its interests, and to grather new ideas for the year to follow. We have good reason to be encouraged, for the tendency of our organization is still onward and upward, and the indications are that the future will be full of prosperity for our beloved order. I found all the subordinate lodges that I visited well up in the work and in a good dinancial condition. Since we last met in this city one year ago, conditions have changed. We have, by our own acts, giver up the good old territory and joined the great sisterhood of states, and are now recognized as one of the shining stars of the Union.

It is most pleasing and gratifying to me to report that the order is in a healthy and prosperous condition. Regardless of the great financial depression, all the lodges are active, and the members are taking great interest in the work. Four new lodges have been
